EVIDENTIARY HEARING (contd.):

Oral motion by defendant for new counsel. Government is excused from the courtroom and sealed ex parte discussion is held with defendant and counsel. The Court finds no irreconcilable conflict between counsel and defendant. For the reasons stated on the record, defendant's oral motion for new counsel is DENIED. Government returns to the courtroom.

Defendant advises the Court he has decided not to testify. The Court hears further argument of the parties. For reasons stated on the record, the Court finds that the stop and search were lawful. The motions to suppress (Docs. 173 and 175) are DENIED.

Discussion held regarding the potential testimony at trial of the Government's linguist expert.

Court is in recess.
